GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES for Students Staff Parents

Good relationships within the school community provide:

- an effective learning and work environment
- a greater chance of success for students, and
- a climate of trust.

Principles of our policy:

- Everyone should be treated with respect
- Resolving conflict as soon as possible is important to maintain the climate of trust.
- Meetings to discuss grievances will be suspended if any person behaves in an insulting or offensive manner.

In the event of a grievance at our school the following guidelines are recommended.
